2014 Summer Camp

Morgan County Parks & Recreation
July 14-17

Spend the week with us, enjoying sports, games, crafts, and special guests that reflect the themes listed. There'll be plenty of time to spend with old friends and make new ones while exploring, learning, and laughing at the beautiful Cacapon State Park.

Monday, July 14

ANIMAL ENCOUNTERS OF THE FURRY, FEATHERED, & SCALED KIND

8:30am - 3:30pm

Animals of the world are varied and unique. Learn about and meet some animals that live in West Virginia. Throughout the day, play games, make your own plaster of paris animal track, and expect animal encounters.

Tuesday, July 15

SPLISH, SPLASH: WET & WILD WATER DAY

8:30am - 3:30pm

 Wanna be cool? Then come and join us for a day of celebrating water with us! We will study it, we will experiment with it, and we will even play with it. We will explore the wetlands at Cacapon State park searching for creek critters and play a series of chillin' water games.

Wednesday, July 16

SWIMMING & BOATING

Thursday, July 17

SURVIVAL IN THE WILD

8:30am - 3:30pm

Do you have what it takes to survive out in the woods? Join us for a day of adventures as we learn the essentials for life, identifying edible plants, and identifying poisonous and venomous plants and animals. We'll also introduce you to Geocaching, a fun outdoor activity that lets you find treasure boxes all over the world.
