K.C. Bohrer- Courthouse Security

Sheriff Bohrer wanted to let the Commissioner know about their concerns about security in the courthouse. One of them being that he would like all employees to go through the x-ray machine when entering the courthouse. This would help eliminate any employee bringing a weapon of any sort in. The other concern Sheriff had was he would like to have a training for all employees on fire alarms, bomb threats and active shooters. In the case anything would happen while the courthouse was open. This way everyone would know what to do or where to go if something like this would ever happen.

No action taken.
